BARLOW, KENTUCKY, MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO RECEIPT AND POSSESSION OF CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

– Numerous Images Downloaded from Internet

PADUCAH, KY - Terry Glen Day, age 46, of Barlow, Kentucky, in Ballard County, pled guilty to the knowing receipt and possession of visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually-explicit conduct, U.S. Attorney David L. Huber of the Western District of Kentucky announced today. The images had been downloaded by Day to his computer and transmitted in interstate commerce through the Internet.

Day admitted that on and between about March 16, 2004 and May 6, 2004, in Ballard County, Kentucky, he knowingly received visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually-explicit conduct. Day further admitted that on or about May 27, 2004 in Ballard County, Kentucky, he knowingly possessed visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually-explicit conduct. These visual depictions had been transmitted in interstate commerce to the computer of Day through his access to the Internet. Examples of some of the images show: a minor naked girl having anal intercourse with an adult male; a minor naked girl with her legs spread and a finger on her vagina; and a naked male having anal intercourse with a minor girl. Day possessed more than 600 images of such sexually-explicit conduct which included movies.

The combined potential statutory penalties are no less than 5 years nor more than 30 years imprisonment, a $500,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of at least 5 years up to life.

U.S. Attorney Huber said that “this is not about what adults do in private, this is about the systematic sexual abuse of children.”

The case was prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney David Sparks, and it was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The plea was entered before Hon. Thomas B. Russell, Judge, United States District Court, Paducah, Kentucky.

Day is scheduled to be sentenced before Judge Russell on November 15, 2007, at noon, in Paducah, Kentucky.

This case is being brought as part of Project Safe Childhood. In February 2006, Attorney General Alberto R. Gonzales launched Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Led by the United States Attorneys Offices, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as identify and rescue victims.
